

BOOKS RECEIVED

- EXPEDITION RELICS FROM HIGH ARCTIC GREENLAND: EIGHT DECADES OF EXPLORATION HISTORY TOLD THROUGH 102 OBJECTS. By PETER R. DAWES. Charlottenlund, Denmark: Museum Tusulanum Press, 2022. ISBN 978-87-635-4686-7. 512 p., maps, colour and b&w illus., bib., endnotes, indices. Hardbound. US$58.00.
- I WILL LIVE FOR BOTH OF US: A HISTORY OF COLONIALISM, URANIUM MINING, AND INUIT RESISTENCE. By JOAN SCOTTIE, WARREN BERNAUER, and JACK HICKS. Winnipeg: University of Manitoba Press, 2022. ISBN 978-0-88755-265-2. 252 p., maps, b&w illus., appendix, notes, glossary, bib., index. Softbound. Cdn$24.95. Also available as an ebook and pdf.
- MEMORY AND LANDSCAPE: INDIGENOUS RESPONSES TO A CHANGING NORTH. Edited by KENNETH L. PRATT and SCOTT A. HEYES. Athabasca, Alberta: AU Press, 2022. ISBN 9781771993159. xviii + 394 p., maps, colour and b&w illus., appendix, notes, bib., index. Softbound. Cdn$59.99. Also available as an ebook and pdf.

PAPERS TO APPEAR

- Strongman, A. The Influence of Butterflies and Bees on the Old Bering Sea Visual Art.
- Mills, S., Simmons, D., and Williamson, K.J. In Pursuit of 'a Good Life': Inuit Qaujimaqatungit and Inuit Women's Movements in and out of Mining Work.
- Gapp, I. Ice in Motion: Panoramic Perspectives and Moving Pictures.
- McMaster, R., Noble, B., Poelzer, G., and Menghwani, V. Local Capacity for Energy Transition in Northern and Indigenous Communities: Analysis of Gwich'in Communities in Northwest Territories, Canada.
- Herrmann, T.M., Chanteloup, L., and Joliet, F. Participatory Video: One Contemporary Way for Cree and Inuit Adolescents to Relate to the Land in Nunavik.
- Pearce, T., Fawcett, D., and Ford, J. Changes in the Composition of the Harvest in Three Polar Bear Subpopulations in the Western Canadian Arctic after the U.S. Listing of the Polar Bear as a Threatened Species.
- Desautels, J., Chapman, J., and Schott, S. Community Perspectives on Inuit Country Food Insecurity in Gjoa Haven, Nunavut.
- Schetselaar, A.B., Andersen, T.S., and Burn, C.R. Performance of Climate Projections for Yukon and Adjacent Northwest Territories, 1991–2020.