ariel is published quarterly, in January, April, July and October.

ariel is a journal devoted to the critical and scholarly study of literatures in English around the world, and to the study of the politics of cultural and institutional formations and their inscription within literatures. The journal publishes articles that explore configurations of colonial power and discourses, resistances to colonization and its effects and inter-relations among literatures. ariel prefers articles that raise issues beyond the internal analysis of a single literary text.

Articles should not exceed 6,000 words and should follow the current edition of the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers or The MLA Style Manual. All articles are refereed blind (authorship unattributed) by at least two readers; consequently, names of contributors should appear only on the title page of manuscripts and not as a running head on each page. Two copies of each manuscript are requested. For accepted articles, disks should be submitted in Word format. The editors require assurance that authors are not offering their articles concurrently elsewhere. Manuscripts are returned only when accompanied with self-addressed envelopes and Canadian stamps or International Reply Coupons. Translations should be provided for citations in languages other than French. The editors reserve the right to amend phrasing and punctuation in articles and reviews accepted for publication. While every care is taken in the handling of manuscripts, the editors will assume no responsibility in the rare event of their loss.

Opinions expressed in contributions are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editors, the editorial board, or the publisher.

Editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, ariel, The University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta T2N 1N4 Canada (Telephone 403.220.4657; Facsimile 403.298.1123; e-mail <ariel@ucalgary.ca>); orders, advertising copies, and other business matters to the Business Manager. ariel accepts payment by VISA. Please indicate your card number and expiry date.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Literatures in English

A Conference at Saint Olaf College

Northfield, Minnesota, USA

June 6-9, 2007

The Department of English, Saint Olaf College, Northfield, MN 55057, will host a conference on “Literatures in English,” Wednesday, June 6 – Saturday, June 9, 2007. The conference will explore issues of theory, theme, curriculum and pedagogy arising from the rise of global literatures in English.

What are “Literatures in English”? What happens to the study of literature in English when the frame of reference expands from the national to the trans-national, from the local to the global? Why should we teach literatures in English? What are its distinctive themes, issues and complexities? These and other like questions will underpin the conference.

The keynote speaker will be Professor Gaurav Desai (Tulane University), and the St. Lucian poet Kendel Hippolyte will give a reading.

For full details, see the web site at <<http://www.stolaf.edu/events/litengconf/>>

The deadline for proposals is November 1, 2006.
