FISHERMEN WITH PLOUGHS

George Mackay Brown

A magnificent poem cycle concerned with the life of an isolated Orkney community from the days of the first Norse settlers to a time in the future when, after total depopulation, new settlers arrive — refugees from an atomic war. The wide range of poetic styles and modes — lyric, elegy, saga, narrative, hymn, prose-poem, rune, ballad — combine to make this one of the author's most impressive works.

POEMS NEW & SELECTED

George Mackay Brown

Poems chosen from two published volumes with twelve new ones added. The saga voice blends happily with more modern notes in these quietly eloquent poems —

*... . A crofter at early light
Found an empty boat stuttering on the rocks
And dawn-cold cocks cheering along the links.*

SELECTED POEMS

Norman MacCaig

*Self under self, a pile of selves I stand
Threaded on time, and with metaphysic hand
Lift the farm like a lid and see
Farm within farm, and in the centre me.*

Selected from the eight volumes he has published since 1955, these poems trace Mr MacCaig's development, and constantly reflect his peculiarly Scottish grittiness of argument and humour.
