a journal for the intermingling of literary, cultural and theoretical scholarship

symplokē is a comparative theory and literature journal. Our aim is to provide an arena for critical exchange between established and emerging voices in the field. We support new and developing notions of comparative literature, and are committed to interdisciplinary studies, intellectual pluralism, and open discussion. We are particularly interested in scholarship on the interrelations among philosophy, literature, culture criticism and intellectual history, though will consider articles on any aspect of the intermingling of discourses and disciplines.

A QUARTERLY OF CRITICISM AND REVIEW

Canadian Literature, published quarterly at the University of British Columbia, explores and celebrates the best Canadian writers and writing.

Each issue contains articles on writers and books—with some issues devoted entirely to special topics—together with new poems and an extensive section reviewing current books.

We hope that your interest in traditional and contemporary Canadian literature, in both French and English, will convince you to subscribe to the most respected source—Canadian Literature.

Call for Papers

DEREK WALCOTT. Abstracts of 500 words or original papers of 25-35 pages in length are being solicited for a proposed festschrift honoring Derek Walcott on the occasion of his 75th birthday, January 2005. Submissions will be accepted through May 2003. The editors seek essays addressing specific poems, plays, collections (especially those that have received little attention). Editors also encourage broader theses on techniques, themes, motifs, and social, literary, and linguistic influences concomitant with Walcott's New World milieu. Manuscripts in MLA style may be mailed to Robert Hamner, P.O. Box 15195, Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, TX 79698, e-mail <rdh@hsutx.edu> or to Paul Breslin, Department of English, Northwestern University, Evanston, IL 60208-2240, e-mail <p-breslin@northwestern.edu>.
