

The Canadian Journal of Educational Administration and Policy

Special Issue

Pivotal Leadership During a Pandemic: Impacts on Educational Administration Policy in Canada

Issue 200, 2022

Editors: Patricia Briscoe, Nyasha Nyereyemhuka, & Pamela Osmond-Johnson

Patricia Briscoe, Nyasha Nyereyemhuka, & Pamela Osmond-Johnson	2	Editorial
Empirical Research Articles
Joshua Hill	7	School Leadership for Decolonization and Indigenization
Merli Tamtik & Susan Darazzi	22	Navigating Turbulent Waters: Leading a Manitoba School in a Time of Crisis
Daniel John Anderson, Jeffrey MacCormack, & Steve Sider	37	Exploring School Principals' Experiences During the First Four Months of the Pandemic as a Way to Reimagine Inclusive Education
Beyhan Farhadi & Sue Winton	49	Ontario Teachers' Policy Leadership During the COVID-19 Pandemic
Theresa (Therri) A. Papp & Michael Cottrell	63	Post-Secondary Educational Leadership Working Remotely During a COVID-19 Pandemic in Saskatchewan, Canada: Exploring Best Practices, Experiences, and the New Normal Post-Pandemic
Dan Smith	76	More Pivots than a Centipede on Ice Skates: Reflections on Shared Leadership in a Post-Secondary Institution During COVID-19
Cases
Jerome Cranston & Rina Whitford	96	Still Thriving: A Case Illustrating How COVID-19 Affected Indigenous Health and Wellness
Patricia Briscoe & Nyasha Nyereyemhuka	104	Turning Leadership Upside-Down and Outside-In During the COVID-19 Pandemic
Christie Schultz	115	Practicing Care-Centered Leadership in a Pandemic: Narratives and Notes on Care Ethics Experiences and Practices in Extraordinary Times