A THANK YOU NOTE

The Editor and the editorial board of JET would like to give special thanks to a productive group of people for this special issue of THE JOURNAL OF EDUCATIONAL THOUGHT. Due to their energy and enthusiasm, this issue of JET, which is devoted to the topic of "Schools, Reform and Society in Western Canada," offers our readers an up to date account of a valuable aspect of the Western Canadian milieu. This special issue includes articles of general interest that are also scholarly and thorough in their treatment of the content. The issue is a credit to the field of education as well as to those who have worked so arduously in giving it life. Our thanks and appreciation go to each author who contributed to this issue of JET, and we would like to extend our wholehearted gratitude to Professors R. L. Schnell, N. M. Sheehan, and D. C. Jones who acted as special editors.
